

Open Positions Coming Soon!

Apply now to teach Part-time ESOL in Fall 2022!

Who we are:

The Community Learning Center (CLC) empowers a diverse community of adult learners to transform their lives and realize their potential through education, skills development, and community participation. Students are predominantly low-income Cambridge residents; come from a variety of ethnic, linguistic and racial backgrounds; and are currently enrolled in English or Adult Basic Education or training. We are looking for ESOL Teachers who will...

- Dynamically teach ESOL classes to adult learners, whether in person, hybrid, or online
- Provide scaffolded, explicit instruction, practice, and assessment in reading, writing, speaking, and listening to help students achieve college, career, and personal goals
- Work as a team with other teachers and staff to develop materials, lessons, and share best practices
- Engage in ongoing professional development to continually improve our services

The ideal candidate has many, though perhaps not all, of the following:

- Knowledge of methods and materials used in ESOL instruction, including of remote instruction
- Sensitivity to the needs of the adult learner population
- A commitment to racial equity and a desire to understand and interrupt systemic racism and other forms of oppression
- A passion for collaboration, problem-solving, and learning new things
- A Bachelor's degree or equivalent experience
- Minimum of one year of experience teaching ESOL, preferably to adults in a community-based setting
- BEST Plus and/or TABE CLAS-E certification highly desirable
- Background in special education, teaching reading, or distance learning is a plus!

Possible open positions are listed below. Classes may be remote, hybrid, or in-person as conditions allow. Pay rate is $29.63 (rate effective 1/1/22)

- Permanent teaching positions or long-term sub opportunities may open up!
- We have classes: Monday/Wednesday mornings, Tuesday/Thursday/Friday mornings from 9 a.m. - 12 p.m.
- Evening classes: Monday/Wednesday evenings and Tuesday/Thursday evenings from 6:15-9:15 p.m.
- Substitute teachers for in-person and online classes.
