

Evening ESOL Teacher Needed in Watertown

Project Literacy, a program of the Watertown Free Public Library, is looking for an energetic, creative teacher for a beginner 2 level class. We are a community-based program that offers adult ESOL classes two nights a week (Tuesdays & Thursdays) from September to the end of May.

Responsibilities: Prepare and teach lessons that actively engage adult students in English language learning at the intermediate level. Work with other staff members on program/teaching issues. Participate in staff meetings and in-service workshops. Complete required recordkeeping.

Qualifications: B.S./B.A., MA or certificate in ESOL or related field preferred. Experience using a learner-centered approach, preferably with adult immigrants in a community-based setting.

Hourly Rate: $26.75/hr for 5 hours teaching and 2 hours preparation per week, plus occasional meetings. Class time is 6:30 – 9PM, Tuesdays & Thursdays.

Position Begins: Second week of September, 2018

To Apply: Please send a letter of interest and resume to Philippa Biggers, pbiggers@watertown-ma.gov
